Dear Messrs. Schepens and Aromi:

Re: Inspection of Single-Shell Tank Farms.

On September 9, 2003, the Washington State Department of Ecology conducted an inspection of the Single-Shell Tank (SST) Farms. The inspection included review of the SST training plan and records, the SST emergency plan, and self-inspection records of tank farm facilities.

No violations were revealed, and Ecology considers the inspection closed.

If you have any questions regarding this letter, please contact me at (509) 736-3031.

Sincerely,

Bob Wilson
